

I INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS OF JUSTICE AND MEMORY (I ICJUM)

PRESENTIAL EVENT – December 2nd, 2023

GENERAL THEME OF THE EVENT: FACING THE LEGACY OF DICTATORSHIPS AND GOVERNMENTS WITH AN AUTHORITARIAN MATRIX

PUBLIC NOTICE No. 01/2023 - FOR SUBMISSION OF EXPANDED ABSTRACTS

1 EVENT PRESENTATION

The University of Itaúna - UIT, through its Postgraduate Program in Law, with the support of CONPEDI - National Council for Research and Postgraduate Studies in Law, in view of the debate on the various relationships between the legal world and technology, represented by artificial intelligence and related ethical and human issues, makes public the opening of registration and establishes rules for participation in the I International Congress of Justice and Memory - I ICJUM, which will be held on December 2nd, 2023, in person, on the campus of the University of Itaúna – ITU in Itaúna - MG.

This is a scientific event dedicated to preserving the memory of the struggle against dictatorships and authoritarian governments, which will be a significant milestone for the consolidation of democratic principles and the rule of law. As we look into the past, we understand that historical experiences of authoritarianism and oppression must serve as a source of learning and inspiration for continued resistance in the present and in the future around the world. Law, as an essential tool in the promotion of justice and equality, plays a central role in this discussion. Through critical analysis of human rights violations and authoritarian structures, we can identify weaknesses in the legal system and strengthen it, ensuring that democratic principles are protected and perpetuated.

In addition, this congress provides a crucial space for dialogue between academics, legal professionals and activists, in order to share experiences, knowledge and strategies, thus strengthening the network of democracy advocates. Memory preservation is a powerful form of resistance, as it challenges any attempt at historical erasure and reaffirms the importance of democratic values in our society. Therefore, this congress becomes essential so that we not only honor and celebrate the courageous individuals who fought against oppression, but also so that we can build a more just, free and inclusive society, based on the fundamental principles of law, human rights and democracy.

- b) Working Groups, for the presentation of expanded summaries, also at ITU headquarters, in the afternoon shift.

1.9 CREDIT HOURS

1.9.1 The number of hours that will appear in the general certification of the event is 10 hours.

2 EXPANDED ABSTRACTS

2.1 Expanded abstracts must be unpublished.

2.2 The expanded abstracts must comply with ABNT standards, in the following requirements:

2.2.1 The PDF file must be in Portuguese or English and have a minimum of 05 (five) and a maximum of 07 (seven) pages on an A4-sized sheet of paper, vertical (portrait) position.

2.2.2 Font: "Times New Roman"; body 12; justified alignment; without syllable separation; 1.5 spacing between lines; 1.5 cm paragraph; margin - top and left: 3 cm, bottom and right: 2 cm.

2.2.3 Citations (NBR 10520/2023) and references (NBR 6023/2020) must comply with ABNT rules or the rules for writing academic papers in the country of origin of the authors, in case the abstract is written in English.

2.2.4 The reference system for direct or indirect citations can be author-date or numerical (NBR 10520/2002), with footnotes for explanatory purposes only (NBR 6022/2018).

2.2.5 According to NBR 6024/2012, titles, subtitles, and sub-subtitles must be aligned to the left and contain text related to them, as well as progressive numbering.

3 AUTHORS

3.1 Expanded abstracts with a maximum of 03 (three) authors will be accepted.

3.1.1 In the case of abstracts written by three authors, one of them must necessarily be the supervisor professor, with a master's or doctorate, who must inform such condition when filling out the qualification in the CONPEDI platform at the time of submission of the work.

3.1.2 The case above does not apply to works written by one or two authors.

3.2 Expanded abstracts of undergraduates, graduates, masters' students, masters, doctoral students, or doctors in any area of knowledge related to the theme of the event and working groups will be accepted.

3.3 The author who submits the abstract is solely responsible for including the name(s) of the other author(s), as well as defining the order of presentation of the names, including the qualification of the supervisor, according to item 3.1.1

3.4 After submitting the expanded abstracts, the inclusion of authors and changes in the order of names will not be accepted.

4 SUBMISSION

4.1 Expanded abstracts will be received between September 5th and October 27th, 2023, precisely until 23:59 hours.

4.2 Each author may submit a maximum of one expanded abstract for presentation at the event.

4.2.1 If the author submits two or more expanded abstracts, all will be excluded.

4.2.2 The limitation of submitting papers does not apply to the advisors mentioned in item 3.1.1.

4.3 For the submission of expanded abstracts, it is necessary to complete the individual registration on the CONPEDI website, and it is not necessary to pay the annual CONPEDI membership fee.

4.4 The expanded abstracts must be submitted exclusively through the “Publica Direito” system, in the associate area, available on the CONPEDI website, at the electronic address www.conpedi.org.br, strictly following the specifications of this notice and the procedures provided for in the same system.

4.5 The submission process, in the “Publica Direito” system, will take place in three stages, as described below:

4.5.1 FIRST STEP – Fill out all identification data of the expanded summary:

4.5.1.1 Choose the Research Line, according to Annex II;

4.5.1.2 Research title in Portuguese or English;

4.5.1.3 Abstract in Portuguese or English with a maximum of 100 (one hundred) words;

4.5.1.4 Inclusion of at least 03 (three) keywords in Portuguese or English;

4.5.1.5 Research title in a foreign language (English, Spanish, French or Italian);

4.5.1.6 Abstract in a foreign language (English, Spanish, French, or Italian), with a maximum of 100 (one hundred) words;

4.5.1.7 Inclusion of at least 03 (three) keywords in a foreign language (English, Spanish, French or Italian).

4.5.2 SECOND STEP - Authors' Report:

4.5.2.1 If the expanded abstract has a single author, it is necessary to check that the name informed in the system is correct, and only then proceed to the next step.

4.5.2.2 If the expanded abstract has 02 (two) authors, proceed as follows:

a) Search the name of the second author in the space provided;

b) Once located, select the respective name;

c) Confirm that the second author has been duly informed.

4.5.2.3 Reporting the qualification of the authors is not mandatory. Authors who wish to inform these additional data, such as title, institution to which they are affiliated, funding for said research, among other information, may do so within the limit of 30 words. In this field, the name of the authors should not be informed, proceeding according to the instructions below:

a) Inform the respective qualification in the text box, below the author's name;

b) Confirm that the qualification was informed correctly;

c) Proceed in the same way with the second author, if any.

4.5.2.4 For the name of the indicated author to appear in the expanded abstract after the submission process is completed, the latter must access its member area and accept the authorship of the expanded abstract, under penalty of having his/her name not registered as the author.

4.5.3 THIRD STEP - Sending the file in PDF format.

4.5.3.1 The file in PDF format must contain the information of the expanded summary from its introduction, including objectives, methodologies, research development, conclusions, and references.

4.5.3.2 The PDF file must not contain:

- a) Name of the authors - the names of the authors may appear only when they are cited, but they cannot be identified as being the authors of the said expanded abstract;
- b) Title;
- c) Summary;
- d) Abstract;
- e) Keywords;
- f) Page numbers.

4.6 After the submission of the expanded abstract, its substitution, correction, modification of the content of any nature will not be allowed.

4.7 Abstracts submitted to the “Publica Direito” system will undergo editorial analysis. Those who do not comply with the rules of this notice will have their work returned so that the necessary adjustments can be made.

4.7.1 If these corrections are not made within 72 hours after sending the rejection of the editorial analysis, the expanded abstracts will be disqualified.

5 ASSESSMENTS

5.1 All expanded abstracts submitted will be evaluated by professors appointed by the entity promoting the event.

5.2 In the “Publica Direito” System, the evaluations are carried out using the double-blind review method, which allows the unnamed analysis of the works, guaranteeing the impartiality of the evaluation. The method still requires the examination of the expanded abstract by at least two professors, which guarantees the reduction of subjectivity and ideological preferences.

5.3 The list of approved expanded abstracts will be published on the event promoting entity's social networks and institutional channels until November 10th, 2023.

5.4 Up to the 25 (twenty-five) best-expanded abstracts may be selected for presentation, among those that reach an average of 7.0 (average of the marks awarded in the evaluation) in each line of research.

5.5 Those who, reaching an average of 7.0, receive the same marks in the last wave of each line of research will also be classified, regardless of the limit established in the previous item.

5.6 Marks will be assigned according to criteria met from 0 (zero) to 10 (ten). The evaluators will analyze the works based on the items below:

5.6.1 Does the title of the expanded abstract correspond to the content developed?

5.6.2 Has the expanded summary been forwarded to the correct line of research?

- 5.6.3 Does the summary and keywords indicate the research objectives and methodology?
- 5.6.4 Have the abstract and keywords been translated correctly into a foreign language?
- 5.6.5 Does the introduction present the problem, central themes, objectives, justification, and research methods?
- 5.6.6 Is the researched theoretical framework adequate to answer the research problem?
- 5.6.7 Are the references current and cover the relevant literature on the topic?
- 5.6.8 Does the research carried out have complexity and depth compatible with the scientific character?
- 5.6.9 Are the structure and language of the expanded summary clear and suitable for achieving the research objectives?
- 5.6.10 Did the methodology used prove to be adequate to answer the problem faced by the research?
- 5.6.11 Does the conclusion answer the research problem?
- 5.6.12 Is the conclusion adequate to the objectives indicated in the introduction?
- 5.6.13 Does the expanded summary take the form required by CONPEDI standards, according to ABNT rules?

5.7 If certain lines of research receive a large number of high-quality expanded abstracts, proven by the assessment, the organization may subdivide these groups; likewise, presentations of lines of research with low demand can be brought together into a single Working Group (WG).

5.8 No appeal will be granted regarding the final evaluation decision, at any stage of the event.

6 THE PRESENTATION IN THE WORKGROUP (WG)

6.1 Expanded abstracts can only be presented in their respective WGs.

6.2 The organization of the event will provide, in advance and by email, information about the rooms in which the GTs will operate (Annex II), which will take place on December 2nd, 2023, at 2:00 pm.

6.3 Definitive registration for the event on an electronic platform, which will be released in due course on the promoting institution's social networks and by email to researchers who send abstracts through the CONPEDI platform, in the email registered on this portal, and the payment of the registration fee for participation and presentation of expanded abstracts in the event are mandatory, including for the co-authors of the works, under penalty of non-publication of the abstracts.

6.4 Only the authors will be able to present the work and they will have up to 10 minutes to do so, according to the guidelines provided by the coordinators of the WG on the day of the presentation, who can, according to the need and to give more dynamism to the activities, give shorter presentation time.

6.5 In case of more than one author, the presence of only one of them at the time of presentation will be sufficient.

6.6 The order of presentation of the expanded abstracts in the WGs will be defined at the discretion of their respective coordinators. It will be up to the authors to organize themselves to participate fully in the WG, and not just during the moment of their presentation.

6.7 There may be a debate following the presentations, at the end of blocks or at the end of all presentations, and it is up to the WG Coordinators to define the format.

7 STATEMENTS, PUBLICATIONS AND CERTIFICATES

7.1 All declarations and certificates referring to the Event will be made available electronically by email, at the address registered on the CONPEDI platform, or on a specific platform.

7.2 The expanded abstracts presented at the event will be published as book chapters on the CONPEDI website, with an ISBN issued by the National Library of Brazil, by the end of March 2024.

7.3 The authors, when submitting their expanded abstracts to the “Publica Direito” system, automatically assign copyright irrevocably and free of charge to the event promoters. The same entities may publish the expanded abstracts mentioning the respective authors and the event, whether in digital or printed format, in their WG books or in other publications, at their discretion.

7.4 Only the author who presented his/her expanded abstract in their respective WG will have their declaration of presentation.

7.5 The publication of the expanded abstract is mandatorily conditioned to its presentation in the respective WG, by at least one of the authors.

7.6 All duly registered participants and listeners, who obtain a minimum attendance of 75% in the activities, will be entitled to a certificate of participation in the event, with a workload of 10 hours. organization's discretion.

7.7 For the purpose of counting the percentage of attendance, the official schedule will be considered.

8 SUBSCRIPTIONS AND PAYMENTS

8.1 For the presentation of approved abstracts, payment of the registration fee is mandatory, in accordance with the payment instructions that will be sent by email registered on the CONPEDI platform, before the event takes place.

8.1.1 Without proof of payment of registration for presentation in the WG, the author/participant will not be authorized to present, nor will his name appear on the list of authors authorized to present.

8.2 The organizing entity will not reimburse payments made or transfer the amount paid for registration to third parties.

8.3 The listeners will be able to participate in the event upon payment of the registration fee in their respective modality.

8.4 Anyone can participate in the event as a listener. In this case, they will only receive the certificate of participation.

8.5 Even in the listener condition, it is mandatory to complete the registration in the CONPEDI system and in a specific registration platform to be made available by the organization.

8.6 Registration fee:

- R$ 130.00 (one hundred and thirty brl) – Professors, lawyers, graduated professionals and postgraduate students lato and stricto sensu;
- R$ 100.00 (one hundred brl) – Undergraduate students.

8.7 For non-Brazilian participants, the registration fee is US$ 35.00 (thirty-five dollars).

8.8 Students enrolled in the Law course at the University of Itaúna are exempt from paying the registration fee.

9 AWARDS

9.1 At the discretion of the organizing committee, the best research papers presented at the event may be selected for the granting of scholarships to their authors, partial or total, in short-term or postgraduate courses promoted by the University of Itaúna - UIT, in a maximum number of three.

9.2 The choice of the organizing committee of the event cannot be appealed in any way.

10 FINAL PROVISIONS

10.1 If non-compliance with the provisions contained in this public notice is identified before, during or after the event, the expanded abstracts submitted will be excluded, including from publication.

10.1.1 In this case, there will be no refund of any amount referring to the payment of registration in the event. No type of certificate and/or declaration will be issued either.

10.2 The promoting entities will not be responsible for any technology failures resulting from internet connections or data congestion caused by an excessive number of simultaneous accesses in the last valid days for the submission of expanded abstracts.

10.3 The Organizing Committee reserves the right to decide, at its discretion, any questions relating to any differences in interpretation or application, errors, redundancies or omissions in this Public Notice.
